

Contents

4 January	Integral idea of the Divine	1
	All things attracted by the Divine	3
	Bad things are things no longer in their place	5
	Integral yoga	7
	Moving idea-force; small and great ideas	8
	New Year Message of 1956	9
	Consequences of manifestation	10
	Work of the Spirit through Nature	11
	Change consciousness: the world changes	12
11 January	Desire and self-deception	14
	Giving all one is and has	14
	Sincerity: more powerful than will	19
	Joy of progress	20
	Definition of youth	20
18 January	Positive and negative sides of individual work	22
	Cheerfulness	23
	A chosen human vessel of the Divine	23
	Aspiration of plants, of children	24
	Active consciousness in plants	25
	Being chosen by the Divine	26
	True hierarchy	27
	Perfect relation with the Divine	29
	India is free: already accomplished in 1915	30
	Division of India, not decreed	31
25 January	The divine way of life	33
	Divine; Overmind; Supermind	33
	Material body — for discovery of the Divine	35
	Five psychological perfections	36

Contents

1 February	Path of knowledge	43
	Finding the Divine in life	44
	Capacity for contact with the Divine	45
	Partial and total identification with the Divine	46
	Manifestation and hierarchy	48
8 February	Forces of Nature expressing a higher Will	51
	Illusion of separate personality	52
	One dynamic force which moves all things	55
	Linear and spherical thinking	56
	Common ideal of life: microscopic	57
15 February	Nature and the Master of Nature	59
	Conscious intelligence	60
	Theory of the Gita: not the whole truth	61
	Surrender to the Lord	64
	Change of nature	64
22 February	Strong immobility of an immortal spirit	66
	Equality of soul	68
	Is all an expression of the divine Will?	68
	Loosening the knot of action	70
	Using experience as a cloak to cover excesses	72
	Sincerity, a rare virtue	73
29 February	Sacrifice: self-giving	74
	Divine Presence in the heart of Matter	75
	Divine Oneness	75
	Divine Consciousness	77
	All is One	78
	Divine in the inconscient aspires for the Divine	79
7 March	Animal sacrifice	80
	Sacrifices to hostile forces	81

Contents

	Sacrifice: receive in proportion to consciousness	81
	To be luminously open	82
	Integral transformation	83
	Pain of rejection; delight of progress	84
	Spirit behind intention	85
	Spirit and matter: over-simplified distinction	86
14 March	Dynamic meditation	88
	Do all as an offering to the Divine	90
	Significance of 23.4.56.	90
	If twelve men of goodwill call the Divine	93
21 March	Identify with the Divine	94
	The Divine: the most important thing in life	94
28 March	The starting-point of spiritual experience	96
	The boundless finite	97
	The Timeless and Time	98
	Mental explanation not enough	99
	Changing knowledge into experience	101
	Sat-Chit-Tapas-Ananda	101
4 April	The witness soul	102
	A Gita enthusiast	103
	Propagandist spirit; Tolstoy's son	105
11 April	Self-creator	107
	Manifestation of Time and Space	108
	Brahman-Maya and Ishwara-Shakti	108
	Personal and Impersonal	110
18 April	Ishwara and Shakti: seeing both aspects	112
	The Impersonal and the divine Person	113
	Soul: the presence of the divine Person	114
	Going to other worlds; exteriorisation; dreams	115

Contents

	Telling stories to oneself	117
	Creative power in world of vital forms	118
25 April	God: human conception and the true Divine	119
	Earthly existence: to realise the Divine	119
	Ananda: divine pleasure	120
	Relations with the divine Presence	120
	Asking the Divine for what one needs	122
	Allowing the Divine to lead one	123
2 May	Threefold union	125
	Manifestation of the Supramental	126
	Profiting from the Divine	128
	Recognition of the Supramental Force	131
	Ascent, descent, manifestation	133
9 May	Beginning of the true spiritual life	135
	Spirit gives value to all things	135
	To be helped by the supramental Force	136
16 May	Needs of the body: not true in themselves	139
	Spiritual and supramental law	140
	Aestheticised Paganism	141
	Morality: checks true spiritual effort	141
	Effect of supramental descent	143
	Half-lights and false lights	144
23 May	Yoga and religion	146
	Story of two clergymen on a boat	147
	The Buddha and the Supramental	150
	Hieroglyphs and phonetic alphabets	151
	A vision of ancient Egypt	154
	Memory for sounds	155
30 May	Forms as symbols of the Force behind	157

Contents

	Art as expression of contact with the Divine	158
	Supramental psychological perfection	158
	Division of works	159
	The Ashram: idle stupidities	160
6 June	Sign or indication from books of revelation	162
	Spiritualised mind	169
	Stages of sadhana	170
	Reversal of consciousness	171
	Organisation around central Presence	173
	Boredom: most common human malady	174
13 June	Effects of the Supramental action	176
	Education and the Supermind	178
	Right to remain ignorant	179
	Concentration of mind	181
	Reason: not supreme capacity of man	182
	Physical education and studies	184
	Self-imposed inner discipline	184
	True usefulness of teachers and instructors	185
20 June	The heart's mystic light and intuition	187
	Psychic being; psychic contact	187
	Secular refrigeration; secular ethics	188
	True role of mind	189
	Realisation of the Divine through love	190
	Depression; pleasure; joy	190
	Heart: mixture in its action	192
	To follow the soul and not the mind	194
	Physical energy: progressive effort; rest	195
	To remember the Mother	196
	Collective discipline; laws of atavism	197
27 June	Birth: entry of soul into body	199
	Formation of the supramental world	204

Contents

	Aspiration for progress	205
	Bad thoughts	207
	Cerebral filter	207
	Progress and resistance	208
4 July	Aspiration when one sees a shooting star	210
	Preparing the body; making it understand	211
	Getting rid of pain and suffering	212
	Psychic light	214
11 July	Beauty restored to its priesthood	215
	Occult worlds; occult beings	216
	Difficulties and the supramental force	219
18 July	Unlived dreams	221
	Radha-consciousness	222
	Separation and identification	224
	Ananda of identity and Ananda of union	225
	Sincerity, meditation and prayer	227
	Enemies of the Divine	229
	The universe is progressive	231
25 July	A complete act of divine love	234
	How to listen	235
	Sports programme same for boys and girls	236
	How to profit by stay at Ashram	240
	“To Women about Their Body”	241
1 August	Value of worship	243
	Spiritual realisation and the integral yoga	243
	Symbols: translation of experience into form	246
	Sincerity: fundamental virtue	247
	Intensity of aspiration: with anguish or joy	248
	The divine Grace	250

Contents

8 August	How to light the psychic fire; will for progress	251
	Helping from a distance; mental formations	253
	Prayer and the divine Grace	254
	Grace at work everywhere	256
15 August	Protection, purification, fear	258
	Atmosphere at the Ashram on Darshan days	261
	Significance of Darshan messages	263
	Significance of fifteenth August	264
	State of surrender	266
	Divine Grace: has always been all-powerful	267
	Assumption of the Virgin Mary	269
	Sri Aurobindo's message of 15 August 1947	270
22 August	The heaven of the liberated mind	274
	Trance or samadhi	274
	Occult discipline for leaving consecutive bodies	276
	To be greater than one's experience	278
	Total self-giving to the Grace	278
	The truth of the being	279
	Unique relation with the Supreme	279
29 August	To live spontaneously	281
	Mental formations	282
	Absolute sincerity	284
	Balance is indispensable: the middle path	285
	When in difficulty, widen the consciousness	285
	Easiest way of forgetting oneself	287
5 September	Material life: seeing in the right way	288
	Effect of the Supermind on the earth	290
	Emergence of the Supermind	291
	Falling back into the same mistaken ways	292
12 September	Questions, practice and progress	295

Contents

19 September	Power: predominant quality of vital being	297
	The Divine, the psychic being, the Supermind	298
	How to come out of the physical consciousness	299
	Look life in the face	300
	Ordinary love and Divine love	300
26 September	Soul of desire	303
	Openness; harmony with Nature	304
	Communion with divine Presence	305
	Individuality, difficulties and the soul of desire	305
	Utility of personal contact with the Mother	306
	Inner receptivity	306
	Bad thoughts in the presence of the Mother	308
3 October	The Mother's different ways of speaking	310
	The new manifestation	311
	A new element: new possibilities	313
	Greater number of child prodigies	314
	Laws of Nature and the supramental	315
	Logic of the unforeseen	316
	Child prodigies: example of a child of eight	316
	Creative writers; the hands of musicians	318
	Prodigious children, prodigious men	320
10 October	The supramental race — in a few centuries	321
	Condition for new realisation	323
	Everyone must follow his own path	323
	Progress: no two paths alike	324
17 October	Delight: the highest state	326
	Delight and detachment	327
	To be calm	328
	Quietude, mental and vital	328
	Calm and strength	329
	Experience and expression of experience	330

Contents

24 October	Taking a new body	332
	Different cases of incarnation	334
	Departure of soul from body	336
31 October	Manifestation of divine love	339
	Deformation of Love by human consciousness	340
	Experience and expression of experience	342
7 November	Thoughts created by forces of universal Mind	344
	Our own thought hardly exists	345
	Idea: origin higher than mind	346
	The Synthesis of Yoga : effect of reading	347
14 November	Conquering the desire to appear good	348
	Self-control and control of the life around	350
	Power of mastery	352
	Be a great yogi to be a good teacher	354
	Organisation of the Ashram school	355
	Elementary discipline of regularity	356
21 November	“Knowings” and Knowledge	358
	Reason: summit of man’s mental activities	359
	“Willings” and the true will	360
	Personal effort	361
	First step to have knowledge	361
	Relativity of medical knowledge	363
	Mental gymnastics to make the mind supple	364
	Spiritual life: traditional and in the Ashram	366
28 November	Desire, ego, animal nature	367
	Consciousness: a progressive state	368
	Ananda: desireless state beyond enjoyings	369
	Personal effort that is mental	370
	Reason: when to disregard it	373
	Reason and “reasons”	374

Contents

5 December	Even and objectless ecstasy	376
	Transform the animal	377
	Individual personality and world-personality	378
	Characteristic features of a world-personality	380
	Expressing a universal state of consciousness	380
	Food and sleep	381
	Ordered intuition	382
12 December	Virtue of paradoxes	383
	Nothing is impossible	383
	The unfolding universe and the Eternal	384
	Attention, concentration and effort	385
	Capacity for growth almost unlimited	387
	Why everything is not the same	388
	Distinction between will and “willings”	388
	Suggestions and formations	390
	The vital world: adverse suggestions	392
19 December	Preconceived mental ideas:	395
	Process of creation	396
	Destructive power of bad thoughts	396
	To be perfectly sincere	397
26 December	Defeated victories	401
	Change of consciousness	402
	Experiences that indicate the road to take	404
	Choice and preference	405
	Diversity of the manifestation	407
Note on the Text		409