

Contents

Series One (1927–1938)	3
Letters from the Mother to her son
Series Two (1931–1940)	13
To the sadhak in charge of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram Building Department during the 1930s and early 1940s.
Series Three (1931–1949)	59
To “My little smile” who worked for many years embroidering clothes for the Mother and later became one of her personal attendants.
Series Four (1932–1934)	105
To the sadhak in charge of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram’s cows, bullocks and carts during the 1930s.
Series Five (1932–1937)	113
To a young sadhak who in his youth learned music, painting and poetry, and later became a teacher in the Sri Aurobindo International Centre of Education.
Series Six (1933–1949)	153
To a young sadhak who became a teacher in the Sri Aurobindo International Centre of Education.
Series Seven (1935–1940)	201
To the sadhak who was the dentist at the Sri Aurobindo Ashram during the 1930s and then served as one of Sri Aurobindo’s personal attendants.

Contents

Series Eight (1959–1960)	221
To a young captain in the Sri Aurobindo Ashram Department of Physical Education.
Series Nine (1960–1963)	241
To a young teacher in the Sri Aurobindo International Centre of Education.
Series Ten (1961–1970)	259
To a young captain in the Sri Aurobindo Ashram Department of Physical Education.
Series Eleven (1966–1969)	357
To a sadhak of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram.
Series Twelve (1969–1970)	397
To a student in the Sri Aurobindo International Centre of Education.
Series Thirteen (1969–1970)	409
To a student in the Sri Aurobindo International Centre of Education.
Series Fourteen (1971–1972)	423
To a sadhak of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram.
Note on the Texts	439